to you the fact that Colonel Barney Oldfield will be here in the Capitol today on the Statehood Day, and many of you that know him will certainly want to meet with him. But I do want to express my appreciation to Dalton Hartman for his insistence and his notice of this pervasive use of the word "you know". And so for that being the case, you know that I would like to honor him. Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Vrtiska. And, Senator Robinson, I know your light is on. We will introduce all the resolutions and then we'll allow discussion after that fact. Mr. Clerk, LR 83.

CLERK: LR 83, Mr. President, by Senator Stuhr, on page 799 of the Journal.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Stuhr.

SENATOR STUHR: Mr. President and members of the body, this resolution recognizes the achievement of the Seward School Bluejays for winning the Class B Championship of the Nebraska High School Wrestling Tournament, last Saturday, and also their coach, H. Cecil Hinshaw. A little bit different than Gering, this was the first boys' state athletic title since 1949. The team broke all the class record for recording 17 total pins in the tournament, and this achievement was possible through the team members' personal dedication, commitment, and discipline, and through the support of Seward teachers, administration and parents. So I ask you to join me in honoring and congratulating the Seward Bluejays on their championship wrestling season. Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Stuhr. Senator Robinson, you're recognized to speak.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Mr. Speaker, members of the body, it isn't very often people confess, but I'm going to confess because of the...what Senator Vrtiska was talking about "you know". You know, it really is tough, you know, to get up here and confess. But I was a member of a Toastmasters Club once. And I was speaking and a fellow recorded my speech. And he come up and he says, do you know that you said "you know" 27 times. So I just
